

VOL VCA/SCC for operational supervisors

SCC for operational supervisors/
Safety Certificate for Contractors

Goal

Point 3.2 of the VCA checklist demands that all operational personnel should follow a VCA safety training . The VCA/SCC for operational supervisors training offers an overview of basic knowledge on a whole range of risks and preventive measures.

Candidates

The VCA/SCC for operational supervisors safety training is accessible to all supervising personnel (no operational personnel). No upfront knowledge or experience is required. All is needed is the motivation of the candidate.

Content of the training

- Legislation
- Risks and preventive measures at work
- Accidents and incidents, emergency plan
- Work permits
- Dangerous substances, asbestos
- Fire and explosions
- Work in confined spaces
- Machines and equipment, noise and vibration
- Manual lifting
- Working at height
- Electricity
- Personal Protective Equipment/Collective Protective Equipment
- Signalization
- Examination by an independent third party

Documentation

A paper syllabus is given with the content of the training per candidate. When the candidate passes the examination, a 10 year valid VCA certificate is given.

Languages

The training as the examination is possible in several languages. Common languages are : Dutch, French and English . Other languages upon request and possibility

Duration

2 days training. From 8h30 till 16h with a lunch break, followed by the examination at the end of the training

Examination

The examination is a multiple choice examination which has to be done within 1hour 24 minutes.