

Basic electricity

Basic risks and mitigations on working on electricity

Goal

Basic information on working with electricity. Explaining basic elements on electricity.

Candidates

No need for any upfront knowledge. Is the ideal package to add to a BA4 competency for individuals that are not acquainted with working in an electric environment.

Content of the training

- Legislation
- Basic elements of electricity
- Resistance
- Condensator
- Coil
- Electric circuits

Documentation

A paper syllabus is given with the content of the training per candidate.

Languages

The training as the examination is possible in several languages. Common languages are : Dutch, French and English. Other languages upon request and possibility

Duration

1/2 day training. From 8h30 till 12h

Examination

The examination is a multiple choice examination which has to be done within 1hour 24 minutes. (need min. 2 weeks to book the examination, depending on agenda)